For Re-Election

SENATOR KYLE VICK

SENATOR KYLE VICK ASKING RE-ELECTION

Senator Kyle Vick, 13th Texas District, is a candidate for re-election to the Senate for his second term, he announced for publication in the newspapers Monday.

Senator Vick whose home is in Waco has made many close personal friends in Milam county since his election in 1940 in a spectacular campaign in which he defeated Doss Hardin. Then little known here he polled within 200 votes of a majority in Milam county and swept to a commanding lead in his home county of McLennan.

Feeling deeply obligated to the people of Milam county he made his first objective that of placing this county on preferential demand in Austin and it was through his efforts that the Texas Highway Department made an appropriation and let contracts for the construction of a new bridge across Little River at a cost of some half a million dollars.

While the appropriation was made and at a time when war had claimed the steel output, Senator Vick by constantly urging the Highway Department, has seen the big piers completed and they now await the span which will come as soon as priorities can get through.

The new bridge will be built with a causeway across the lowlands so that traffic may proceed under flood conditions. Appreciation here of business men for Senator Vick's efforts was finding expression in manifold pledges of support for re-election to a second term. The Senator is (turn to page four)

CAR SIDESWIPE TRUCK DRAFTEE LOSES ARM

Thomas E. Elliott, 23 year old draft registrant who was moving from Freeport back to his home in Waco in preparation for entering the army, lost his left arm Tuesday night when his car sideswiped a truck.

The arm, hanging by a small fragment of flesh, was removed by Dr. Clifford G. Swift at Cameron Hospital and Elliott was resting well at noon.

The accident occurred on Highway 36 near Milano. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott were on their way to Cameron when their car sideswiped a truck driven by Edward Sell of Cameron. Elliott's left arm was protruding from the car window and was cut off by the truck bed when the crash occurred.

Mrs. Elliott escaped with minor injuries. She bandaged her husband's arm and put on a tourniquet to stanch the flow of blood.

Mr. Sell stopped immediately and took the injured man in his truck and sped to the hospital and this contributed much to saving the life of Elliott.

Deputy Sheriff Carl C. Black went to the scene of the wreck and reported the details to the Daily Herald. Mr. Elliott had been working in Freeport and with his wife was on their way home to Waco. Their baby may have escaped death because it was with his father and mother in Waco.

Mrs. Moody is now serving her first term in office, having been appointed by the late Judge Graham Gillis to serve out the unexpired term of her husband, W. C. (Nig) Moody who was at that time called to the army.

In making her announcement Mrs. Moody expressed her desire to thank the people for their co-operation and kindness shown her in the past in helping make her office work a success. She said it had been a distinct pleasure to work with the people of Milam county.

Mrs. Moody's qualifications are derived from her educational background. She has a degree from Southwest Texas State Teachers College in the class of 1937. She taught school for two years, leaving that position to become Home Demonstration Agent in Burleson county, being the first agent in that county. It was her job to organize and establish Home Demonstration Work there at which she was a success and praised highly for her work.

BRITISH TROOPS STORM, TAKE CASSINO

ROY BASKIN FOR DISTRICT JUDGE

To The Voters of Milam County:

The time again nears when you will choose your District Judge for the term beginning next January. When you vote on July 22nd, you will find my name on your ticket as a candidate for Judge of the 20th Judicial District of Texas.

This is a personal appeal to you, individually, for your serious attention. There is insufficient time now left for visiting with you, and war conditions discourage the use of what there is for campaign purposes; so I count on your giving me an attentive hearing for this brief statement.

The office of District Judge is the most exalted the people of Milam County have within their gift, and is one to discourage the employment of political expedients, which are fitting under other circumstances. It requires maturity of thought and discretion, and the temperament and ability to avoid partisan bias or prejudice.

Probably no lawyer fails to feel, at some time, the ambition to serve upon the bench; and I confess that this hope has not been without its appeal to me. But I have waited through the years before offering my name to you for this high place, until I might feel that I had attained experience and judgment to render that course unrepentant on my part. And I am yielding to encouragement (continued on page four)

CLARENCE D. McCALL CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF

Clarence D. McCall, well known former deputy sheriff here and experienced peace officer, is a candidate for Sheriff of Milam County, subject to the Democratic Primary election to be held on Saturday, July 22, 1944.

Mr. McCall was born and reared in Milam county and his experience as a peace officer includes police connections in Waco as well as deputy sheriff here for a number of years. During recent months Mr. McCall, beyond military age, has been working in a war industry.

He has maintained his home in Cameron and is here now to make his campaign for the nomination for Sheriff of Milam county. Mr. McCall was greatly pleased to have the pledges of many friends over the county in making his announcement. The office of Sheriff is now held by Mrs. Sarah White who is not a candidate for the nomination.

Friends of Mr. McCall point out that he has had an unusual length of service and experience, that he knows the people of the county and what they demand of a peace officer and for these and other reasons he will be able to render the best possible service in the office.

Mr. McCall's announcement brings to mind a singular exploit in which he participated in February 1942, which was culminated by a gun battle in Buckholts in which an escaped convict was captured after he had shot a Texas Highway Patrolman near Hearne, took his car and sped down the highway.

The story of this thrilling chase was told by Bob Dashiell in the De- (turn to page three)

Bluebonnet Plant at McGregor is Asking For More Workers

Men and women are wanted for good jobs at the Bluebonnet Ordnance plant at McGregor.

A delegation of officials from the plant were in Cameron Thursday to place advertising for advance notice of interviews to be held here Monday at the Chamber of Commerce.

The plant at McGregor is operated by the National Gypsum Company and with war contracts.

Under current draft regulations men over 26 may go to essential work. If they do not go they will be subject to military duty as soon as men from 18 to 26 have been inducted. Men over 30 are preferred in war work because they have a better chance of permanent deferment.

Mrs. Elyses S. Vess of Refugio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. C. Smith in Cameron.

FINAL BIG ASSAULT NETS 1500 PRISONERS

Cassino, for 5 months under siege by the Allied armies in Italy was captured early Friday by the British.

In the final assault on the town 1500 German prisoners were taken.

The German radio early Friday announced that Cassino had been evacuated.

Less than four weeks ago the Allied command said that Cassino could not be taken. While the British were mopping up the city the Americans under General Clark were wiping out all resistance in Formia which was stormed and taken by the Americans.

The Poles fighting under their own command took the Monastery of Saint Benedictine which was practically demolished by American air attacks some time ago.

Strong formations of Allied planes based in Corsica were blasting the Balkans, oil fields and installations.

Allied warships off shore pumped shells into Formia and both sea and air power played an important part in the capture of Formia.

The Allies were pushing on toward Itri. In Washington Secretary of War Stimson said that Allied armies had contacted the Hitler line in Italy. Mr. Stimson warned the people not to listen to rumors of when the invasion will come across the English channel.

General Rommel represented in charge of German defenses across the channel said the invasion will come any minute now.

W. W. MARKHAM FOR COMMISSIONER HERE

W. W. (Dock) Markham, a long time resident of Cameron and a well known business man here, has announced his candidacy for the office of Commissioner for Precinct No. 2, subject to the Democratic Primary election to be held on Saturday, July 22, 1944.

Mr. Markham enters the race for the nomination with support pledged from many over the precinct. He expressed his deep appreciation for the confidence which so many have expressed in him and enters the race with definite assurance of success. First of all, he said, he wanted to thank his many friends for their encouragement and based upon this indication of wide support he has entered the race.

Mr. Markham has never offered for public office but his citizenship has been one of continuous service to the public welfare and friends were sincere and numerous who praised his example of citizenship and the (turn to page five)

Speaks to Rotary

T/CPL. ROWLAND BOEDECKER

After almost 2 years in the Aleutian Islands, T/Cpl. Rowland Boedecker, is back home and is being transferred with his unit of Field Artillery to an eastern Camp.

Cpl. Boedecker who is a Technician 5th Grade, spoke to the Rotary Club Wednesday. Life on the Aleutians is interesting but often dangerous.

Cpl. Boedecker went to the North Atlantic theatre of war when operations had to be pioneered. Roads have been built and housing conditions are better. The average temperature there is about zero but winds sweep over the camps of the soldiers at 100 miles per hour and parkas worn by the men freeze in 2 minutes and snow drives in around buttons and even zippers.

The soil there is formed by decaying vegetable matter and is about 6 inches thick. The rock formations are volcanic ash and make good road material. Wild life there is restricted to caribou and fox. Birds thrive to a limited extent. Cpl. Boedecker said they ate much caribou meat for supplies were limited at first.

"Victory Egg" Now On Display Here; Is Second Such Laying

An egg with a victory 'V' is now on display at The Herald, brought in by Mrs. Clay Phipps of Maysfield.

This is the second such egg to be placed on display since the war began. Both eggs have had a plainly visible V and sufficiently large to make them mystifyingly unusual.

With Mrs. Phipps was Mrs. F. B. Dodson also of Maysfield and both were welcome visitors at The Herald.

The egg was taken from a nest on the Phipps farm at Maysfield. It is now to be seen at The Herald. Last year another egg with a victory V was brought in. There is an old saying that truth is stranger than fiction so the egg proves the rule.

Cameron's Volunteer Fire Department beat the time of the winning team at Taylor Sunday but got only second place money and here is how it happened.

Father Who Served In World War No. 1 Writes Letter To Son In This War; Lives At Ord, Nebraska; Father-in-Law of Cameron Resident

Here is a letter by Ing. Klima, Jr., of Ord, Neb., to his son Pfc. Robert L. Klima now in armed services overseas. Mr. Klima is the father in law of Mrs. Woods of Cameron. She is now at her home here with her mother, Mrs. W. W. Wade. Robert and Ingene were married on June 11, 1943.

Dear Bob: Well, your number came up to go overseas and you got there safely, for which your mother and I are most thankful. The job ahead for you is a nasty one, but your assignment in it is responsible and different from anything that you had ever done or even planned. It is, however, a privilege as well for only Americans—the pick of the Nation's manhood—are eligible to march with Uncle Sam's armed citizens and participate in this grim game of war against the forces which would destroy civilization, Christianity and freedom. The forces that would destroy the American way of life that you and I have been used to, the way of the rest of the world.

You volunteered your service. The uniform which you now wear stands for Democracy and for the principles which have made our American way of life possible. That uniform has never gone to war except in defense of these principles. Wear it with pride.

Now as you go with millions of other sons from other American homes, I hope you will put your very best into your assignments in this war. It matters not whether you ever wear stripes, bars or even stars, if you are man enough to be a good soldier. Being a good soldier means more than just drilling and fighting; or even dying. It means living as a man should live.

Too many of our men when once they are in the army and away from their family, their home and local reputation, are inclined to cut loose, lower their standards of morals and go the limits. You are now on your own and the choice is yours. Don't do it, Bob.

The boys who have difficulty in the army, as I remember it, are those who refuse to adjust themselves to army discipline, which is as necessary as guns and munitions. They try to buck the army, which is bigger than any man in it. In organized warfare, as in organized society, it is necessary that some rule and govern while others submit and consent to be ruled and governed. Ordinarily I would not want you to be a "yes," but in the army it is different. Be a part of it even when going is tough and accept it with an attitude that you are no better than your buddies.

Perhaps you will recall when you were a small boy and used to shine my shoes; when I used to tell you that if you were going to be a shoe-shiner, I wanted you to be a good one—the very best shoe-shiner in town. Then when you grew up and started in on your first job in the grocery store, I told you I wanted you to try to be the best on the job, or in any other work that you might choose later. That kind of aiming never had a bad effect on your score, I don't believe.

I am saying these things to you, Bob, not because you are different than millions of other young men in service, but because I feel that you are a part of me. Even though you are a man now, you will always be that same boy of mine.

I well remember the days when I, too, wore the uniform of an American soldier. Little did I then think or realize that within twenty-five years, you, my son, would be wearing the same kind of uniform for the same cause. When you have a son of your own some day, as I hope you will, you will know just what I mean. I hope your service in the Army will prove to be more successful in freeing your son from the scourge of war than was mine for you. It is just that that inspires me to carry on as Chairman of Valley County Civilian Defense Council, and to participate in the various war program activities on the home front. Your mother and I will try to carry on and do our share on the home front, to hasten the day of Victory.

You have gone with other fathers' sons to serve as guardians of American Freedom. May the Good Lord watch over and keep you and those serving with you until the day of peace and a safe homecoming!

Good luck, Bob, and write often!

With love,
YOUR DAD.

Dewey Wants to Abolish Poll Tax; Is Put on The Spot

Washington—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York voiced his opposition to poll taxes today but Walter White, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, promptly declared the Republican governor's statement "is not enough."

Replying to a telegram from White, who asked Dewey to help break a threatened senate filibuster against a long-pending anti-poll tax bill, the New York governor said in part:

"I have always fought against the poll tax and every other device to deprive free people of their votes."

White quickly telegraphed in reply:

"To say that one is against the poll tax but refrain from advocating specific steps to abolish it is not enough."

White, in asking Dewey's aid, had spoken of the governor's "strategic position" in Republican party affairs, an obvious reference to the fact that the New Yorker has a long lead in pledged delegates for the GOP presidential nomination. In his reply to Dewey's wire White said the statement "leaves unanswered the two most important questions connected with the issue:

"Do you favor the federal bill now before the senate to abolish the poll tax?"

"Do you favor cloture?" He asked Dewey to "urge upon the 28 Republican senators who virtually hold the fate of the bill in their hands that they vote next Monday for cloture."

Mrs. Bennie Carter of Sweetwater arrived in Cameron late Friday for a week end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hughes and other relatives and friends in Cameron.

Mrs. Grover Williams and Mrs. Ed Phillips of Buckholts transacted business in Cameron Friday.

Bombings Continue As War Tempo Same

Air attacks continued over the battle areas with Americans losing 49 planes in the past 48 hours over Europe.

The Herald heard a report that Constanta had been abandoned by the Germans on the Black sea coast.

Bombers were tearing at air fields in France early this morning.

In football the winner is sometimes decided on penerations. It begins to look like that the radio statisticians might be working up to a verdict based on the number of long or short tons of bombs laid on the Axis. Statistics on leaflets and French post cards were not available.

Mrs. Maude Mullinax accompanied by her niece Willie B. Elliott visited relatives and friends in Houston over the week end.

Pvt. Raymond Cryer of San Diego, and Mrs. Raymond Cryer of Holland were Cameron guests Friday.

Lt. Gore has just completed his training at Randolph Field and goes on to new conquests in the air to reach his destination on the battle front.

Texas, cradle of America's gigantic aerial training program of the last three years, leads the nation in the number of pilots graduated from the 11 Southwest advanced flying schools of the AAF Training Command, contributing 326 sons to America's aerial might.

Congressman Dies Quits Re-Election Race at Beaumont.

Congressman Martin Dies, hated by Roosevelt and all New Dealers including Walter Winchell for his activities against Communists, Friday announced his withdrawal from the race for Congress in his district which he has represented for years.

Mr. Dies gave his reason for withdrawing as bad health and a desire to return to private life. Radical union labor, including the CIO was after the Congressman and recently were charged with bringing money to Beaumont to defeat Dies.

The work of Congressman Dies has often been criticised but each succeeding Congress appropriated money to keep his committee on duty to investigate un-American activities.

Congressman Dies was a candidate for United States Senator four years ago and spoke in Cameron.

The following young men have been inducted into the navy, leaving Cameron Sunday, May 14, for service:

GERMANS RESISTING WITH DESPERATION

Clamor for a second front had brought a general offensive in Italy with the Fifth and Eighth Armies attacking the Germans along an 85 mile front.

The new offensive may be a part of the general plan to bring a three way attack upon Germany.

There were no immediate details beyond the statement that the 5th and 8th armies under General Alexander had made satisfactory progress.

The 8th Army formerly commanded by General Montgomery is located in the Cassino area while the 5th under General Mark W. Clark is attacking from the west.

The preliminary phases of the battle were marked by what was said may have been the largest artillery barrage in history.

The Allied armies were meeting weak but positive opposition. The Germans were using flame throwers on the 5th Army units.

The air attack on the continent of Europe was keeping pace with the scope of former days.

Over in the South Pacific General MacArthur's bombers were punishing the Japs with new blows on Truk.

Premier Tojo warned the Japanese people that the situation is very serious for them.

There was scanty news from the Russian front. The Reds are now in possession of Sevastopol.

Cpl. Luther Poole Home From Pacific

Cpl. Luther D. Poole son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarno has arrived at a receiving hospital in Oakland, Calif., on a sick leave. Cpl. Poole has served in the Southwest Pacific with the U. S. Marines. He will later enter a hospital for further treatment.

Cpl. Poole is a former Yoe High student and starred on the regional team of football in 1936 under the coaching of Carroll Wood. He played football from 1934 through 1936. Cpl. Poole hopes to visit his friends and relatives in Cameron soon.

Jim McGoldrick who suffered a foot injury some days ago is reported to be resting nicely in the Cameron Hospital. His many friends miss seeing him in town and wish him a speedy recovery.

Judge & Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp have returned from Dallas where Judge Kemp attended the State meeting of the K. of P. lodge in session there this week.

LITTLE CHANGE IN BATTLE PICTURES

There was little change Monday in the war picture.

Air battles raged over Europe and heavy losses were being sustained by the Allies but the Germans were losing more than we were.

By the use of flame throwers and tanks the Allies were able to take 6 more villages from the Germans in Italy.

The fighting in Italy was fierce and the Germans were resisting with stubbornness. Heavy casualties were reported on both sides.

The Japs were making headway against the Chinese despite the claims of the Chinese and the situation in China was not encouraging.

The invasion was still in the background. Sextons were standing by to ring church bells but no bells have pealed out to announce the news.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marak of Marakville were shopping in Cameron Wednesday.

Mrs. Jessie Kirk is reported to be recovering nicely following an operation in the Newton Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Kyle Clifton of Houston en route to Rogers for the funeral of her brother J. D. Hairgrove stopped in Cameron Thursday.

Mrs. John Matyastik and family of Clarkson were Cameron guests last week.

Coffee - Flight Companion of Airline Pilots

... and on American Airlines it's Admiration Coffee

In midflight pilots like passengers on American Airlines frequently enjoy the delightful pick-up of a cup of Admiration coffee. Typical of many, Chief Pilot A. Beall Fitzgerald, ace pilot and trans-oceanic flyer, finds that Admiration postpones fatigue, brightens up the senses, and adds much to the enjoyment of each trip. He never refuses a cup when offered—and often calls for one when it isn't!

During off hours one of Captain Fitzgerald's hobbies is to relax with his baby daughter. member 1942, none of Crime Detective, nationally known magazine. Charley Keys, highway patrolman, was shot by the bandit near Hearne. The man had escaped from Texas prison and his name is W. E. Garner. The patrolman overhauled Garner for speeding on the highway. As he approached the car to arrest the convict Garner flashed a gun and deliberately shot the officer. Leaving Keys bleeding on the highway the convict took the officer's car. Hiding with Garner in his car when overtaken by Keys were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nelson, who were catching a ride to Hearne but did not know Garner was an escaped convict, nor did they dream that he was not only to shoot down an officer in cold blood but kidnap them as well.

When Garner shot officer Keys he leveled his gun at the Nelsons and told them he was going to be "a bigger shot than even Clyde Barrow." He forced the couple into the machine and sped away. At Hearne he turned west and came through Cameron. Notified, officer McCall headed out on Highway 36. The bandit came to Cameron and put the Nelsons out and then headed west but drove out behind the officers. McCall was watching the Yarrington road which leads into the main street in Buckholts from north but soon spied the bandit car coming in from the east on Highway 36.

When Garner failed to halt McCall opened fire. There were five bullet holes in the car window and Garner struggled out of the car at the end of the street and ran to a church where he fell. McCall had shot him in the legs through the car. That was the end of Garner. He recovered and so did Keys.

In commending Clarence D. McCall Crime Detective Magazine said: "This deputy sheriff shot it out and proved once more that punk's can't fight real men."

Mr. McCall hopes to see each voter and ask for their support in the coming primary election, pledging loyalty to his duties and to the people in the full discharge of the duties of this office.

Due to war conditions it may not be possible to make a normal campaign and Mr. McCall takes this means of soliciting your vote and support in the coming primary. He feels that the office of sheriff is a public responsibility requiring the most experienced of men in order to achieve the maximum in law enforcement. His friends point out that Mr. McCall possesses these and all other desirable qualifications and they urge his nomination.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Phipps and daughter of Houston visited relatives and friends in Cameron over the week end.

her home. Mrs. Moody is thoroughly conversant with the duties of this office. She worked unofficially for 2 years without pay to help her husband and at present is serving the unexpired term of her husband. Her friends point out that she is well qualified and efficient because of the above mentioned experience. She has received compliments and praise for her loyalty and efficiency in carrying on the duties of this office.

Mrs. Moody was grateful to friends and patrons of the office who have complimented her and who point out that she has done her job well in the past and if elected this time which will be her first elective term she will feel it her duty, as a result of such honor, to carry on as she has done in the past. She has not only performed the duties of the office she has helped the public in many other ways such as filling out various government forms for rationing, etc. She is at her office in the court house and willing to help at any time.

Mrs. Moody said that under ordinary conditions she would not consider running for office but since it is necessary for women to work where it is possible to keep the home front going while the men are busy on the battle front and various occupations necessary in war times, she is making the race. She is running on her capabilities and her friends commend her for her devotion to the duties of the office demonstrated during the time she has served. Mrs. Moody takes this means of asking you for your vote and support. Having served well an unexpired term her friends point out she is deserving of one elective term.

Mrs. Moody states that she has no desire to run for office after this time and if elected she will gladly step out at the end of her term leaving the office to some other deserving person of the people's choice.

"If elected, I will assure you efficiency and devotion to the office day by day as I have done in the past and will truly thank you and will forever be grateful for your vote and support, and may God bless you and yours."

serving his first term. He wants to see the new bridge completed early in his second term.

Senator Vick is a lawyer and is engaged in practice in Waco. He is a former County Judge of McLennan county, serving for a long period of time and with distinction. Popular with his home people he has become as popular in all sections of the district composed of Milam, Falls, Limestone and McLennan counties.

In making his formal announcement for re-election to a second term Senator Vick pledges the people of the district that he will keep up his good work and invites the people to call upon him for any assistance they Senator may render. Capt. Kyle Vick, Jr., a son, is a veteran American Airman. He has flown against the Japs in India and for a long time was in the ferry command.

Senator Vick wants to visit all sections of the District and hopes to see each citizen of this county but war conditions make a campaign impossible. He asks his friends to lend their help assuring the people he will always be grateful.

from many friends to take this occasion to seek advancement at your hands.

It occurs to me that in the realm of the judiciary, we should more nearly approach the ideal we have often dreamed about and coveted, where the office should seek the man. There is a very restricted number from which a District Judge must be chosen in this county, and all of these eligible to the office have, by nature of their profession, been in the public service and more or less in the public eye. Every voter knows these men personally, or knows friends from whom they may be secured a fair estimate of them.

I am a native of Milam County and of Cameron, where I have lived all except five years of my life, having practiced law in the County for the last thirty years. Many years ago I served as City Attorney of Cameron, and two terms as County Attorney of Milam County. The second term as County Attorney was after the duties of District Attorney had been added to those of County Attorney by the law which became effective in 1918. I had no opposition for my second term as County Attorney, and retired without offering for a third term. I am now City Attorney of Cameron, having been again called to that office in the 1942 election without having been a candidate. In civil practice, my experience has been general, and has given me actual insight into most fields of law known to this section, in both trial and appellate courts. This is, briefly, the background on which I would base qualification legally to serve you as judge. As to whether I possess the courage and moral vision requisite to conduct the public business and to preside over public and private litigation, you would inquire, not from me but from others who may have had opportunity to observe and pass on that question, and I can only invite such inquiry on your part.

I shall scrupulously refrain from any manner or character of campaign practice or appeal that might cast any shadow of reflection on the dignity of the office involved, and if you see fit to honor me with your vote and approval, your action will be sincerely appreciated.

Respectfully yours,

ROSE BASKIN.

Mrs. J. B. Baskin and son are here on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Searchoung of Buckholts, and will visit other relatives. She lives in Murfreesboro, South America, and has made the trip by plane several times before.

Better Co-Operation Must Be had in Waste Paper Drive—Brogdon

Our waste paper drive in the business district must be discontinued if a few of our business houses persist in mixing filth with waste paper.

Let me ask every citizen to co-operate. It is troublesome, I will admit for you to do your full part in this drive, but don't forget that our boys, your boys, and your patron's boys want the use of the paper that would ordinarily be destroyed. It is the sacrifice of these boys on enemy fronts all over the world that is helping you and all the rest of us stay in business. Failure to co-operate help us to lose a war we want to win.

S. E. Brogdon,

Chairman, Salvage Campaign.

work he has done in this community through the years to prove his loyalty to the people he now seeks to serve in this important office.

The office of County Commissioner is the most important within the gift of the people and men who serve in this office should be men with business experience and their qualifications should be braced with experiences which will enable them to comprehend the duties as they apply to the big job of handling the people's business. Mr. Markham's friends point with confidence to his ability to discharge these duties and they urge the people to support him.

During the past years Mr. Markham has been engaged in business here. The period of time in which he has been thus engaged have been most trying and only men with determination and good business judgment plus hard work succeed. Mr. Markham has been successful in his business and believes he can be equally successful as a Commissioner.

Knowing transportation and its needs and knowing roads and their needs Mr. Markham feels that he would be able at once to enter upon his duties with the maximum degree of efficiency.

Mr. Markham would follow the democratic way in spending road money; that all sections of the precinct should share in proportion to needs and in this way every tax payer would receive in substantial amount what he has contributed in taxes to the maintenance of his county government and to roads. This Mr. Markham points out is in no way intended as criticism but a pledge to see that at all times all communities and all the people are treated fairly and uniform in the way of tax benefits.

Mr. Markham has found time to contribute his share of civic responsibility. He has a keen and abiding interest in the precinct he wishes to serve and for other reasons of desire to give back to the people in service something commensurate with the friendship and good will he has enjoyed in his business, Mr. Markham asks your vote and support.

War conditions will greatly effect campaigns and to be patriotic and conserve time and materials necessary to war production a candidate who wishes as does Mr. Markham to co-operate in every way, will not be able to make the normal canvas peculiar to campaigning. In this way he sends his greetings to friends and asks your vote and support, pledging you that he will always be found loyal and true to the people for their confidence.

Mrs. A. J. Montgomery of El Paso, is here on a visit with her mother, Mrs. Meta McCown. Her husband, Staff Sgt. Montgomery, is now stationed in the Marines in the South Pacific. Many friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Montgomery will be here for some time.

Mrs. Otto Folschinsky of Rosebud is reported recovering nicely in Newton Memorial Hospital following an operation last Monday.

Mrs. Alvin Nolte, Mrs. John Henry Wilson and Miss Lucille Stedman left Monday for Dixie Dude Ranch in Bandera. Mrs. W. N. Burns will join them Friday.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 21.

The Golden Text is: "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the answer, the Lord Jesus Christ; who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself" (Philippians 3:20, 21.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Romans 12:2.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul, or Spirit is God, unchangeable and eternal; and man coexists with and reflects Soul, God, for man is God's image" (page 120.)

The over all quota in the Fifth War Loan is $1,535,900 while in the 4th War Loan the overall quota was $1,320,000. The overall quota in each case includes the E bond quota.

Mr. Hicks said early Monday that organization plans are now in the making and will be announced in advance of the drive date which is June 12 through July 8th.

Milam county, in the third war loan led the nation in percentage of over-subscription of the loan, selling more than ten million dollars in bonds of all types.

Martin Dies Retires
To Private Life; Was A National Figure

Beaumont—Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex) chairman of the house special committee on un-American activities and a member of congress for 14 years, announced today that he will bow out of public life at the conclusion of his present term.

In a telegram to the Beaumont Journal, Dies, 42, attributed his decision to ill health, to a desire to re-enter private business and to a "dread of becoming a professional politician dependent upon the public." He is an attorney.

"It is a common failing of most politicians to feel that the people owe them a perpetual position," Dies said.

Dies became nationally known as head of the house committee created to expose subversive activities and individuals. Created in May, 1938, the committee has probed a wide variety of subjects, many resulting in bitter controversies on and off Capitol Hill in Washington.

Dies is also a member of the powerful house rules committee.

The CIO political action committee, headed by Sidney Hillman, had marked Dies down for defeat. On May 9, in the representative's home county, a democratic county convention dominated by the refinery employees union (CIO) denounced Dies as a "demagogue." Dies has charged that the political action committee was raising a huge fund to beat him.

Judge J. M. Combs, who recently resigned as justice of the ninth court of civil appeals, announced this week his candidacy for congress opposing Dies. He said he knew nothing of reports that certain interests were raising large funds to swing the election, but said that if they were true "there isn't a decent man or woman in this district who wouldn't resent it. In East Texas we've always done our own voting."

Dies made no reference to these developments in his announcement today.

His district—the Second Texas—embraces Angelina, Hardin, Jasper, Jefferson, Liberty, Newton, Orange, Sabine, San Augustine, Shelby and Tyler counties.

Dies said that he had been under the care of a physician for a throat disorder for 10 days and that he would be unable to speak publicly for two or three months and that

"under these circumstances I cannot conduct the kind of a campaign necessary to properly present issues and facts to the people."

Draft Muddle Still
Presents Problem;
Some Boards Delay

which gives blanket deferment to

The new selective service directive men over 30 years of age who are in essential industries apparently will make filling future quotas difficult for many Texas draft boards, officials over the state reported Friday night but it seemed that most boards would defer all men 30 and over in essential work.

The order from the Washington office had not been received by the boards.

One selective service board spokesman said that "all we know about the new order is what we read in the papers," but he anticipated a hardship in filling future quotas.

It was a different situation in another place. Both boards reported a "nice backlog of reserves" and said they could meet quotas for two or three months easily without calling men 30 and over. Volunteers supplementing quotas there are given first consideration.

Some men over 30 are in the May call in one board in Harrison county and the board there is awaiting the directive.

"King" Stock Dog
Wants Home;
Has Great Promise

This is about a dog. His name is "King" and he wants a home.

Thursday Louis Gerick intervened when the owners of the dog wanted to dispose of him. "I simply could not stand to see such a fine dog killed," said Gerick. "Surely there is someone who wants a fine stock dog like King."

Gerick placed "King" in his pickup and brought him to The Herald plant. The Midget has found homes for a number of fine dogs and cats so here's hoping someone who wants a good dog will come after "King."

"King" is now at the home of Joe Gerick, Sr., at Ad Hall and can be seen by anyone who wants a good stock dog. "King," is best suited for country life. He is large weighing around 60 pounds and is only about a year old. He has fine breeding of mixed bloods, is light tan and white, and already has had considerable training. He has a fine disposition and is especially safe for children.

"King" seemed a bit uncertain Thursday about things in general. It was the first time he had been away from home. Stockmen who want a dog or anyone who can appreciate one of man's best friends on this earth, will do well to hurry out to the Gerick farm for no doubt a number will want "King."

LOSSES ARE HEAVY IN NEW ITALIAN FIGHTING

Bloody fighting on the newly opened offensive front in Italy was reported in dispatches at noon Saturday.

Initial successes were being expanded and a number of hilltop strongholds taken by the Allies Saturday were extended to include 3 towns.

Indications were that losses have been very heavy on both sides. In air attacks from the Mediterranean the Allies lost 18 craft.

There was heavy activity over Europe in the air with Germany again on the receiving end of devastating bomb weights. The Reds were active again in Rumania.

More and more it appeared that the fighting in Italy was nothing like a grand scale offensive nor was it a part of the so called second front. The invasion talk has subsided.

New Version of an Old American Tradition

We were sitting on Ed Carey's porch, enjoying a friendly glass of beer, when a squadron of fighter planes goes over—in tight formation—swift and trim and powerful.

"There," says Ed proudly, "goes an American tradition." "What do you mean, tradition?" Eben Crowell says. "America's a hundred sixty years old—fly-ing's the newest thing there is."

"But those planes," says Ed, "they're the best in the world—the best made and the best flown. That's what I mean by an American tradition: making things, doing things, just a little better, whether it's an airplane or a railroad or a glass of fine American beer like this."

And from where I sit, Ed has put his finger on what makes America great—and will keep her great. The urge to do things just a little better—from the planes we make to the glass of beer that we enjoy. Things to be proud of—all of them!
